

Case Manager

1. Is it legal for district to change case carriers/managers after an IEP is done? For example one special education teacher does all the testing but then once the student qualifies for services he/she is served by another specialist? (2009 Winter)

Yes this is legal. Best practice is to have the person who has done the testing provide the services but because of caseload limits and scheduling issues this may not be possible.