

Duck and Goose: A Life in School

Duck: It happened again! I can't believe it. They put that kid in my class again!

Goose: Which student? ...Did you mean Johnny?

Duck: Yes, Johnny, the poster child for ADHD! My whole class is doomed! I will never be able to teach....

Goose: But look...you have a lower class size this year...

Duck: As if that would be any help! It will just be that much easier for that boy to hijack the whole class!

Goose: You have a great teaching style, you are engaging and you know how to reach kids. I am sure you will know how to handle the boy.

Duck: No one can handle that boy!

Goose: Have you tried talking to Mr. Brown about him? I heard he performs really well in his class....he is Mr. Brown's best student!

Duck: Really? Someone managed to get through him?

Goose: It just takes patience! I am sure you will have a great year with all your students...

Duck: Well thank you for letting me know about Mr. Brown, though I am not entirely convinced there is hope. I will have a bad, bad year!

Goose: (Shrugs)
